

First International Taste of European School

Italian and German Sommeliers from 24th to 26th of May in Naples. The European School of Sommeliers is proud to invite you at VITIGNOITALY, in Castel Dell'Ovo in Naples (Italy) from 24th of April until 26th.

It's a showroom dedicated to the the Italian tradition of autochthonous and native vine.

The event is in partnership with European School of Sommelier Italia, and it will be the first occasion for German and Italian Sommeliers to be together. The sommeliers will taste and discuss about it in a great environment of cultural growth.

European Food And Wine is an important and historical heritage, a unique and ancient culture that has his own story. The target of European School of Sommeliers is to get this great history to be known. Food an wine are expressions of our traditions and cultures, where people, during the history, has passed that knowledge made of influences, contaminations, unions.
